DyAna Goodall passed away December 17, 2019 in Los Angeles, California. She was born in Blanding, Utah July 13, 1970 and was adopted several days later into the family of LaRain and Zaloma Goodall of Santaquin, Utah.

She was raised in Santaquin in a large family of five brothers and one sister. She attended Payson High School and graduated from Tintic High School in Eureka, Utah.

She was a kind soul who loved her family and the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and disliked being the center of attention. She was an active member of the Hollywood, California ward where she discovered a loving and caring community and served as a ward missionary. She had eclectic interests. She loved to cook, held season tickets to the Los Angeles Dodgers, Universal Studios, Pantages Theater and the Los Angeles Zoo. She loved jigsaw puzzles, crocheting, candy, swag and dogs. She had a knack for attending to the young, the aged and the infirm.

She is remembered as a loving sister and a fun aunt. She loved and missed her dad who preceded her in death.

She is survived by her son Shad, her mother Zaloma, siblings Tod (Darlene), Casey (Lauren), Daryn, DaLayn Bing (Marc), JoDell (Shelley), Fernando (Evagaline), LeeAnne Geddes Waters, and 18 nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held in her honor Saturday, January 4, 2019 at 11:00 am at the Brown Family Mortuary, 66 South 300 East, Santaquin where friends may call from 9:30 to 11:00 am prior to the services. Interment, Santaquin City Cemetery.

The family extends their gratitude to all who shared their time and love with her.
